be given by the "Ladies Social Club"
in the Adlonia room.

trip to Monarch last week. He found zero weather there and threatened to stand still on account of snow.

On next Monday, November 11th,
W. A. McIntyre will hold a public auction at his place 7 miles northwest of Carlstadt, and 8 miles northwest of Suffield.

now was turned topsy-turvy.

fully at Swanitz, wishes to urge

A coating of tin, a new floor, and other betterments give Mr. Thomas a fine a store-room as one could wish.

Wm. G. Scollard, of Scollard &
Bigs, last week received a telegram from the foreign sales department of the I. H. C., asking him to go to Ottawa this winter as representative of the company. Mr. Scollard has received other attractive offers, but has declined them all. "Carlstadt looks good to me," he says.

"I hereby award the prize of 100
lbs. of Redcliff flour to Mrs. Ed.
Edmunds, for the best loaf of bread."
With these words, F. E.
McDiarmid, Judge of the bread baking contest on farm train day, gave his decision. Mrs. Edmunds, the winner, lives just a few miles from town, and she is to be congratulated.
The famous Redcliff flour, when she used it, is for sale by the West Gra-Co., N. E. Stewart, Mgr.

PROGRESS

The City Fathers, ever watchful of Carlstadt's best welfare, have finally closed a deal whereby they secure two acres of land from Thom Swantz, same to be used as a centery. The land, which is triangular shaped, lies just east of Carlstadt and adjoins the railway. Consideration—$37.50 per acre.

They also have had men at work
grading Railway avenue, Carlstadt avenue and Bowell avenue. The sidewalk has now nearly reached the school property.

Walter Ball has purchased a lot at the corner of Prairie avenue and Tilly street, and will proceed to improve same with house and lawn.
The house is to have a large cellar
under it.

F. Jordan Basken recently purchased from the townsite owner
the lot adjoining his on South Broadway. We understand that he intends building a tenant house
this fall.

Among the families moving to Carlstadt recently are: Mr. and Mrs. George Russell and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ball and children, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martz and children.

The Wise Man vs. The Fool

There are many methods
of acquiring wealth.

The Wise Man will invest his dollars
in something that has good foundation,
a solid future—Something that shows prosperity. The Wise man will hold tight to his dollars and say "Show Me."
If you can show him, he invests at once.
THE OTHER MAN buys any place—
and then finds that he has made a poor buy.

Have a look at our stock of lumber, consider the quality, and you will be a wise man and buy of

APPLY AN OLD SAYING

To the Marketing of your Grain----

"NEVER PUT OFF TILL TOMORROW
WHAT YOU CAN DO TO-DAY" :: ::

With hundreds of conditions the world over affecting prices on the Carlstadt market, you cannot sell all your crop at the top price of the season. As you can get cars, ship your grain in-season, and each will average up a fair price. Ship to the Grain Growers' Grain Co. and you will be sure of your grain selling for the top price, and also you will get the promptest and best service in the handling of your business.

The Grain Growers' Grain Co. was started and is run by farmers and for farmers. Its chief aim is "Service to Shippers," as shown by it----

1. Unobscured Selling Organization--That gets top prices.
2. Sampling Department--That checks the Government grading for consumers.
3. Claims Department--That when you can supply the evidence, collects claims on loss of charges.
4. Guarantee to carry out your instructions--That it lives up to absolutely.
5. Absolute square dealing in every way--To-day can point to the most successful and progressive Company in Canada.

Compare Grain handled 2,310,000 in 1907, to 2,500,472 in 1908.
Compare Grain handled 2,310,000 in 1907, to 2,500,472 in 1908.
Compare Profit going back to farmers, $790, in 1907, to $1,121,151 in 1908.

Unsurpassed progress in every department beyond question, could only be the result of promises fulfilled and action taken.

The 12,000 farmers responsible for the company now offer its perfect organization for your use, and also point out the fact that you can become a part owner of this property any time. How true the old saying is: "Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today. Act today--Write."

As We See It

Is this winter?

That all is not roses in the path of newspaper men was again shown last week, when the Langdon Leader suspended publication and announced its exodus.

A gentleman who by the way, is not a resident of Carlstadt, last week raised the question as to why the flag did not float over the school. Surely, if the children are to grow up with the love of the land that is educating them, if the spark of patriotism is to be nurtured and developed, the flag should float to the breeze every school day. The small cost of buying a new flag occasionally should not be a stumbling block.

Be it understood that the columns of this paper are open to all signed communications. That is one of the purposes of the paper--to give everyone who sees a chance to better conditions, an opportunity of voicing their sentiments. Whether or not they are our sentiments cuts no account.

Church Notes

Anglican Church

The Harvest and Thanksgiving Service which took place last Sunday November 3rd, in connection with the Church of England in the Methodist church, was attended by a large congregation, who entered most heartily into the singing of the hymns. The Rev. Mr. W. C. Harwood, the whole edifice was tastefully decorated with grain and pretty house plants. A sacred solo "I heard the voice of Jesus" was beautifully rendered by D. V. Fain of the C.P.R. depot. Mrs. F. Jordan Backen presided at the organ in a skillful manner and was very ably assisted throughout the service by J. Blanchard with his violin. The Rev. T. W. Cunliffe preached a very appropriate sermon emphasizing how thankful all should be for the harvest--although perhaps larger in other places, and for the many blessings known and unknown. Contributed

BAZAAR

There is one expression that applies most aptly to the bazaar
given last Wednesday by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church. That is "Labor is well rewarded." Success crowned the ladies untiring efforts and they may well be proud of the result. All kinds of fancy work, quilts, clothing, etc., were sold in large quantities during the afternoon. At suppers the church building was crowded with hungry people who were more than satisfied by the repast afforded.

In the evening the following program was rendered.

Anthem: Choir.
Duet: Miss Edna and Paul Gish.
Quartet: Rev. Clydale, Elmer England, Reuben Armstrong, Herbert Ketchum.

Recit: Miss Edna Gish.
Duet: Rev. Clydale F. J. Conn.
Recit: Miss Lily Watson.
Address: "The Spirit of the Age"
F. J. Conn.

Operetta: Mrs. H. R. Bean, Elmer England, Misses Clara Lock-
ren and Lily Watson, Messrs.
Reuben Armstrong and Herbert Ketchum.

Anthem: Choir.
Rev. Clydale acted as chairman.

Following this a number of articles were auctioneered by F. E. McDiarmid. The total proceeds of the ladies work was more than $120,
and they are deserving of great praise.
